Ambassador!

The Epic Destination Shoots offer an unparalleled experience for the models that schedule photo shoots. All of the shoots include hair and makeup from the top makeup artists in the industry. Most of the images from these shoots are used for social media, branding, or just for fun! Some of the shoots are very specific to magazine covers and features, such as BodyScape Magazine and Epic Fit Magazine.

BodyScape is a stunning print publication that Sarah photographs and publishes, and recently, she launched Epic Fit Magazine, which is an exclusive special edition magazine, powered by Bodyscape!

Now that you know all about the Epic Destination Shoots, we are looking for a few great Epic Destination Shoot Brand Ambassadors to help spread the word about what we do! Word of mouth is everything and we would love to reward you for sharing our project with prospective clients that may be interested in booking one of our Epic Destination Shoots in the future.

How do I become an ambassador?

First, you'll have a meeting with Sarah on the phone or via a zoom chat to discuss all of the details, expectations and rewards. Second, you start sharing about Epic Destination Shoot to people that you feel would be interested in what we have to offer. Social media shout-outs, Facebook and Instagram live posts, and tags back to our pages are the best way to get the word out, and viewers get to see how excited you are about the project. Texts to friends and phone calls also work well if you're planning on involving those close to you.

Become an Epic Destination Shoot Ambassador!

Shoot Ambassador

The Ambassador Program rewards vary depending on how many people come to shoot at an Epic Destination Shoot through your referrals. It's all about earning additional income here, and you can use that additional income towards a photo shoot of your own, if you desire!

Once you've shared the shoot information with the clients you're referring, (pricing, location, dates, etc.) and you have determined that the client is serious about booking, you can send them our way to get on a call and we can talk to them about their goals and ideas for the shoot. We have the opportunity to secure their shoot day from there. It is always helpful to have you, the referrer on the call as well, to make the introduction.

Privacy is Key

You will be asked to sign an agreement that states that you won't share any of the Epic Destination Shoot OR BodyScape Magazine business model, or any of our other "secret sauce" to any other photographers, industry people, models, designers, stylists, etc. We have worked hard to perfect our project and that is what makes Epic Destination Shoot so special!

Epic Destination Shoot + BodyScape Magazine Ambassador Agreement

I, _____ am coming on board as an Ambassador for Epic Destination Shoot and BodyScape Magazine.

I understand that I am not allowed to talk to other photographers, makeup artists, stylists, PR people, managers, and people of this nature about HOW Epic Destination Shoot and BodyScape Magazine are operated. I understand that Sarah Lyons Glabman has worked hard on her business plan to ensure its success.

I understand that being an ambassador does require work to achieve the overall goal. I will make posts on my social media accounts, do the occasional LIVE post on IG or FB, or both, and I will do my best to draw attention to and to promote PictureGroove Photography, Epic Destination Shoot and/or BodyScape Magazine.

I understand that I will communicate with my referrals about pricing of the shoots before I let Sarah know about them. Once the referral is in understanding of the pricing and is ready to move forward with booking a shoot, I will let Sarah know so they can set up a zoom call or a phone call with that referral.

And lastly, I understand that this is all about fun and empowerment, and I promise to have fun!
